Phone Scam Alert – 60 second version

I'm Andrew Saul, Commissioner of Social Security.

I'm here to warn you about telephone scammers pretending to be government employees.

Some of these scammers may say threatening things like you will be arrested if you don't make payments or provide personal information.

Do not fall for these tricks.

These calls are not from us!

Real Social Security employees will never threaten you for information or money.

If you receive a call like this: Hang up!

Never give the caller your personal information like your Social Security number or bank account, or send money in any form of cash, gift cards, wire transfers, or pre-paid debit cards.

Report the call to our law enforcement arm, the Office of the Inspector General at: OIG dot SSA dot gov.

Share this information with your friends and family.
